THE DARK CONTINENT

Methodist Work in Civilizing the Africans.

SATURDAY'S CONFERENCE WORK

Bishop Taylor's Account of His Missionary Work in the Dark Continent. Christianity the Only Means by Which the Natives Can Be Redeemed from Barbarism—Sunday's Meeting.

OMAHA, May 9.—Bishop Fowler, of San Francisco, presided at the Methodist conference Saturday. The devotional exercises of the morning were led by Rev. W. C. McDonald, a colored brother of Mississippi. Immediately after reading of the minutes, Dr. Fiske presented a resolution endorsing heartily the address of Dr. W. F. Moulton, the English fraternal delegate, delivered the evening before in the presence of the conference. The minutes of the several annual conferences were referred to the committee on itinerary.

BISHOP FOWLER.

Amos Shinkle, of Cincinnati, was put on the committee on revivals.

Dr. Ott, of the West German conference, moved that every resolution and every memorial be printed in The Daily Advocate. The secretary stated that the memorials and resolutions had been coming to him in such shape that no divine person could tell whether they were resolutions, memorials or what. Some of them were not signed. He thought the delegates should learn how to write resolutions and memorials in such a manner that they could be read.

Dr. F. M. Bristol, of Chicago, offered a resolution requesting the standing committee to sit with closed doors, excepting to members of the general conference. The resolution was tabled by a vote of 202 to 114.

Dr. Neely, of Philadelphia, then read the report from the committee on rules of order. The reading had progressed but a short way when Dr. A. B. Leonard moved that the report of the committee be printed in The Daily Advocate, so that the delegates could compare the new rules with the old. It was decided to print the rules.

Dr. Bristol, of Chicago, called for the order of the day, which was the report of Bishop Taylor, of Africa, and the special order was then taken up.

Work Among the Blacks.

Bishop Taylor, of Africa, then came forward and was greeted with great plause. He said evangelization of Africa was a stupendous work. A part of the continent of Africa was poverty stricken by nature on account of the unproductiveness of the country in its present state. The natives were unable to make use of even the resources that were within their reach. They needed brain culture and hand culture. Without hand culture they would starve on their barren plains. The best time to begin the education of the head and hand, which must be carried forward simultaneously in Africa, was in its youth. It would not do to wait until the heathen had grown up in ignorance and sin.

"Day unto day and night unto night," said the speaker, "the work should go on. God's school has no vacation; it is continuous." The speaker claimed that even the heathen children could be brought up in the faith, and that when they grew to maturity they would establish homes and found a civilized and Christian state. He recounted the hardships and dangers that beset the missionary work in Africa, and said the work demanded men and women of heroic faith and courage. Some of the women missionaries, and especially the Misses White, he commended heartily for their zeal in facing the dangers in the Dark Continent.

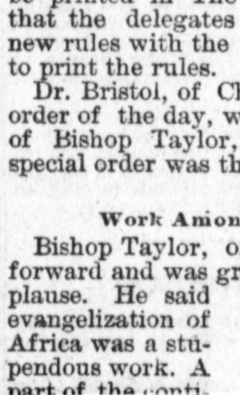

Bishop Taylor then spoke of the necessity of purchasing or redeeming the young African girls before they could be gotten away from their parents. The girls are marketable and the parents will not let the missionaries have them to educate without first receiving the market price for them. He said it was useless to try to Christianize the young men without Christianizing the young women. He told of one instance where a naked heathen African carried a child nearly 800 miles to keep her out of the hands of the slave merchants. He then gave a list of the membership of the missions and Sunday schools in Africa. He said there are over 3,000 church members, thirty-eight Sunday schools, over 300 teachers and 3,750 Sunday school scholars belonging to the Methodists in Africa.

In conclusion, Bishop Taylor presented a little four-year-old girl he had brought with him and said that the missions of Africa needed the prayers and the help of the Methodists of America. "The work is succeeding. God is leading, and we are prepared to follow," were the closing words, and they were heartily approved. The report was endorsed by the conference on a rising vote, every delegate rising to his feet.

The conference then adjourned.

Sunday Evening's Meeting.

The miserable weather yesterday did much toward keeping the delegates in doors, but the meeting at the Exposition hall yesterday evening in the interest of an American university and Christian education was well attended. Bishop Hurst presided and the musical program was under the direction of Chaplain McCabe and M. S. Hardin, D.D. Dr. Albin, of New Orleans, led in prayer.

The first speaker was Bishop Newman, of Omaha, who took as his subject "The Genesis of the American University." The bishop is a forcible speaker and handled the question masterly.

"The American University and the Institutions of the Church," was Dr. Payne's subject, and he spoke in a feeling manner of the necessity of church education.

Bishop Fowler spoke on "The University the Defender of Our Faith," contending that the sneers of the infidel or the gibes of the deist can only be combated by men educated in all sciences.

"The University in Relation to the Mission Field," was Dr. C. C. McCabe's theme. He contended that education was absolutely necessary to proper work in the missions in order to acquire the tongues of the heathen.

Dr. Frank M. Bristol took for his text "The Preacher and Higher Education." His chief point was that educated people would not tolerate an uneducated pulpit.

"Providential Aspects of the American University" was discussed by J. W. Pashbord, L.D., of the Ohio Wesleyan. He believed the establishment of an American college at the national capital under control of the Methodists would add much to the dignity of the church and of its ministers.

"The American University—Why the Methodists Should Build It," was ably handled by John E. Searls, Jr., a college equal to Yale and Oxford was badly needed by the Methodists, he argued. It would be a step in advancing the education of the ministry.

"American Educational Debt to the World," was spoken of by Bishop Thoburn, of India. The bishop's practical experience in the need of educated missionaries made his discourse extremely valuable.

"The American University, a Water Mark of Our Twenty-first Quadrennium," was Dr. Moore's subject. He believed the time had come to build a great college, and that by so ordering this conference would leave a mark that would redound to its credit in ages to come.

Chaplain McCabe's solo, "The Song of a Thousand Years," was a distinctive feature of yesterday's meeting. He sings as only McCabe can, and was given an ovation.

Last night a prayer meeting was held.

A BOY AT THE THROTTLE,

And a C. and S. E. Engine Crashed into a Big Four Train at Anderson, Ind.

ANDERSON, Ind., May 9.—The Chicago and Southern railway is charged with being responsible for a disastrous freight wreck which occurred about 6 o'clock Saturday evening in this city. Freight train No. 25, on the southern extension of the Michigan division of the Big Four, in charge of Conductor Charles Black, and Engineer Fletcher J. Oliff, Engine 22, was just pulling into the city. The engine and seven box cars had cleared the crossing of the Chicago and Southern when yard engine No. 8, with a short train, crashed into the freight.

The engine was in charge of a boy, Maurice Donovan, Jr., who fired for his father, one of the oldest engineers in the employ of the company. Engineer Harry Commons, who had charge of the engine, was back on the train. Both jumped as the crash came, and escaped with slight bruises. The engine was turned completely over, and is a total wreck. Four loaded freight cars were derailed and the crossing torn up. The wrecking crews were summoned, and cleared the track by midnight.

Tramps Try to Wreck a Wabash Train.

DELPHI, Ind., May 9.—A bold attempt was made Saturday night to wreck the local passenger train running between Lafayette and Fort Wayne. The train was tearing along toward this city at the rate of fifty miles an hour, when three miles east of Delphi, it ran into a tie that had been placed across the track. The front truck of the engine jumped the track, and bumped along on the ties for 900 feet before the train could be stopped. Little damage was done. It is thought the tie was placed on the track by tramps who had been put off of an eastbound freight that passed that point only a half hour before.

Crops Ruined by Wet Weather.

KANSAS CITY, May 9.—The heavy rains which have been pouring down for the last few days are having their effect on the Missouri river, and that stream is rising rapidly and is within two feet of the danger line, and rising at the rate of an inch an hour. The conditions are similar to those of 1881, when a most disastrous flood did so much damage in this part of the country. The wet weather so long continued, has caused the wheat to rot in the ground, and it is reported by the farmers that the crop will be almost totally ruined.

W. J. Elliott's Sentence Stands.

DAYTON, O., May 9.—The Circuit court has refused to suspend the sentence of W. J. Elliott, of Columbus, who was convicted in the Franklin county common pleas court of manslaughter for the killing of Osborn.

SUFFERED FOR ANOTHER'S CRIME.

Louis L. Garfield Declares His Innocence Upon His Deathbed.

CLEVELAND, May 9.—There died in Brooklyn township last Thursday a young man who has apparently been grossly misused. He was Louis C. Garfield, a grand-nephew of the assassinated president. Eleven years ago, while he was living at Bryan, O., he was tried and convicted of shooting a man, chiefly on the testimony of a woman, who now lives in St. Louis. He protested his innocence, but could not prove it.

Six years ago he was released from the penitentiary and remained in obscurity until a short time ago, when newspaper dispatches were published in all parts of the country saying that he had left his home with the avowed purpose of shooting the St. Louis woman. At the time of the publication Garfield was ill with consumption at the home of his brother in Brooklyn township, fully cognizant of his approaching end. Before death came Garfield called his relatives about him and again declared his innocence of the shooting, declaring, moreover, that after six years of effort he had found proof that the St. Louis woman perjured herself in the case, receiving therefor the sum of $200. Garfield, at the time of his death, was only thirty-seven years old.

NOTED NEGRESS DEAD.

One of Abraham Lincoln's Servants Dies in Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 9.—A knot of crape fluttered from the door knob of an old tumble-down cottage at 1630 Dearborn street last night. Within lay the body of Mrs. Epsy Smith, an aged colored woman who died at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Half a century ago this old woman rocked to sleep Robert Todd Lincoln, the present minister to the court of St. James.

She was a servant in the Lincoln household at Springfield long before Abraham Lincoln ever dreamed of being president of the United States. The minister whom performed the ceremony that made Mr. Lincoln and Miss Mary Todd husband and wife married the dead negress to Robert Smith.

There is no record of Mrs. Smith's birth, but it is supposed she was born in Shelbyville, Ky., about the year 1820.

Destructive Rainstorm in Oklahoma.

GUTHRIE, O. T., May 9.—The heaviest rainfall for years has fallen steadily for twenty-four hours. East of Orlando there was a cloud burst, causing streams to raise six feet in a few minutes and drowning many cattle. At Oklahoma city the lower part of the city is flooded and much damage has been done. There are several bad washouts on the railways, and in the country so many bridges are washed away that mail routes have been abandoned. Near Stillwater, three houses and many barns were destroyed by wind. John Crockett was fatally injured and some stock was killed.

Confessed His Crime.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., May 9.—Herbert Darrough was arrested Saturday evening by Marshal Crowley, of this city, charged with stealing $2,200 from the Pacific Express company. The investigation that followed the loss of the package lasted all night, and Saturday resulted in Darrough confessing the crime. He went and got the money and returned it to the agent. During two days and nights he had hid it under a bridge. Darrough was placed under $5,000 bond to appear for trial, his father giving the bond.

Killed at a Crossing.

MANSFIELD, O., May 9.—William Ward, a miller, living near Perrysville, fourteen miles southeast of this city, was struck by a freight train on the Pennsylvania road yesterday afternoon near that town, as he was driving across the track. He was instantly killed, and his body was thrown on the pilot and carried a half mile before the train was stopped. The deceased had lived in that vicinity twenty-five years. He was sixty years old, and leaves a widow.

Two Women Drowned.

CINCINNATI, May 9.—A pleasure boat on the Big Miami river at Woodsdale island yesterday, containing three women and one man, was upset and two women, Alice Larul and Kate Clark, were drowned. Both the women resided in this city, the former at 237 West Seventh street and the latter at 537 Central avenue.

Colored Men Want to Emigrate.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 9.—About 1,000 negroes attended a mass-meeting here yesterday. They organized an emigration society to plant colonies in Africa, passed resolutions endorsing Senator Butler's bill that whites and blacks can not live together, and asking the press of the country to urge congress to pass the law.

Horrible Suicide.

CINCINNATI, May 9.—Miss Lizzie Rice, aged twenty-eight, one of the wealthiest and best known young ladies of Boone county, Ky., went into an orchard, in sight of her residence, and, saturating her clothing with coal oil, set herself on fire and was burned to a crisp. Despondency was the cause.

Unknown Man Killed by Cars.

NORWALK, O., May 9.—A strange man's body was found at Woodlawn crossing on the Wheeling and Lake Erie road. He had been run over and horribly mutilated by a passing freight train. There was nothing about his person to tell who he was, or where he came from.

Bigamist Danc Guilty of Robbery.

CLEVELAND, May 9.—The jury in the case against John Anderson, the Dane, supposed to have many wives, brought in a verdict Friday afternoon finding him guilty of stealing $1,200 from his last victim, Mrs. Ellen Purcell, of St. Louis.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The Good Work That Has Been Accomplished by Them.

SIXTY-EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY.

Interesting Exercises Held in Washington City—Nearly One Hundred Sunday Schools Have Been Organized With Over Four Million Scholars and Teachers.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The sixty-eighth anniversary of the American Sunday School union was held in the New York Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday evening. Hon. William Strong, president of the society, presided. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Bartlett, Rev. J. C. McCullagh, superintendent of missions in the south, and W. L. De Groff, superintendent of the Rocky mountain district.

During the past sixty-eight years the society has organized 89,400 Sunday schools, and gathered in 4,215,500 scholars and teachers. It has also circulated $8,500,000 worth of religious literature.

The report read of last year's work shows the following interesting results: One thousand six hundred and sixty-four Sunday schools were organized in places that were previously altogether destitute of religious privileges, containing 7,018 teachers and 59,551 scholars. Aid was given to 2,127 other schools with 14,302 teachers and 135,299 scholars; while in addition to this, 4,536 schools that had been before reported were aided with 25,790 teachers and 299,206 scholars.

Besides all this direct Sunday school work the missionaries of the society distributed by sale and gift 6,458 Bibles and 9,115 Testaments. They made 56,582 visits to families for religious conversation and prayer, and delivered 12,474 sermons and addresses.

Six thousand six hundred and seventy-eight conversions were reported as the result of the evangelistic services held by these earnest and faithful men, and 216 churches have been developed from the Sunday schools established by them, while regular preaching services have been secured in many other places as an outgrowth of this Sunday school work.

Rev. B. W. Chidlaw, D.D., aged eighty-one, made an address, and upon the platform was the venerable Dr. Scott, ninety-four years old, father of Mrs. President Harrison, who signed Dr. Chidlaw's diploma as a professor in Miami university fifty-nine years ago.

CHINA AND JAPAN.

Latest Steamer Advices from These Two Countries.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—The steamer City of Peking, which arrived yesterday from China and Japan, came into the harbor with the yellow flag flying, having smallpox on board. The disease was discovered among 1,000 Chinese just as the vessel was leaving Yokohama. One case was found and the sick Chinaman was at once transferred to the shore. Eight hundred of the Chinese passengers were destined to Honolulu, but were brought here direct; only one case of varioloid was developed on the voyage.

Advices from China show that villainous anti-foreign placards have again appeared on the walls of Kading. Some were displayed and torn down at Shanghai, whereupon a larger number was put up. The Christians have been warned that they are to be driven out.

The Japanese steamer Itouma was wrecked on the coast of Corea April 3, and fifty persons, including three Japanese naval officers were drowned. The captain and twelve of the crew were drowned. It is stated that there were no foreigners on board the ill-fated vessel.

No Evidence of Guilt.

MASSILLON, O., May 9.—Henry R. Weimer, charged with having caused the death of his stepdaughter, Ada Ebersole, by administering poison to her, was discharged late Saturday night upon the conclusion of a protracted preliminary trial before Mayor Harold, at Dalton. Evidence was conclusive that arsenic was found in the girl's stomach, but there was no proof fastening the crime upon Weimer. The discharged man threatens to bring suit against Dr. F. F. H. Pope, who made the affidavit which caused his arrest, for false imprisonment, and also against a number of newspapers for defamation of character.

Danger of Piercing Ears.

PEEBLES, O., May 9.—Miss Hattie Crawford, a young lady residing a short distance south of this place, is dangerously ill, and her condition is alarming. Some weeks ago Miss Crawford had her ears pierced, and soon afterward her face commenced to swell. The swelling continued until her head and neck are in a terrible condition, and she suffers untold agony. Her condition is very serious, and the attending physicians have no hopes for her recovery.

Swindling Seed Seller.

WINCHESTER, O., May 9.—A slick-tongued young man, claiming to represent a Cincinnati firm, has been traveling through this county for several weeks selling seed. The young man exhibits a mammoth onion, the seed of which is sold at seventy-five cents per ounce. Farmers buy the seed, and after planting it is found to be jimson weed. The man has met with success, and no less than $100 worth of the seed has been sold in this section.

THE BULLETIN always aims to keep its readers posted as to the proceedings of the City Council. In our issue last Friday, we gave a synopsis of what passed between Mr. Wood and Mr. Wadsworth at the meeting Thursday night when the application of Mr. John Shepard and others for paving and improving an alley was under consideration. Their remarks were a part of the proceedings of the Council. This Mr. Wadsworth will not deny, and yet the Public Ledger says our report of the proceedings was "a fling" at Mr. Wadsworth, and "a malicious intent to throw dirt" at that gentleman.

This is absurd. If any one has been making a fling at Mr. Wadsworth, or if any one has been throwing dirt at him, Mr. Wood is the gentleman.

The BULLETIN will continue to tell the truth about the proceedings of Council, and if Mr. Wadsworth and the Ledger wish to warp our reports into flings at Mr. W. or any one else, they are welcome to do so.

SENATOR CARLISLE.

A Democratic Leader Whose Record and Services Commend Him to the Party.

At the meeting held at Frankfort last week to promote Senator Carlisle's candidacy for President, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That, in the present condition of National politics, it is the deliberate sense of this meeting that the Democratic party stands in need of a leader as the nominee of that party for President whose record and services commend him without question to the confidence of the Democratic party of the United States without respect to local or sectional differences.

That in view of his long and eminent public services, his prominence as a safe and conservative leader, his identification with the vital issue of tariff reform—the slogan of the party in this contest—and above all, his wisdom, integrity and courage, we commend Hon. John Griffin Carlisle to the Democracy of Kentucky and the United States as eminently fitted to win the contest for the Presidency before the Democratic National convention, and lead the party to victory in November—the fruits of which shall be a great Democratic administration as President, that we will realize the hopes and aspirations of the millions who pray and hope for free government on Democratic principles.

Hon. Josh Powers and Attorney General Hendrick each made ringing speeches, full of enthusiasm.

A telegram from Senator Carlisle was read, in which he requested that his name be not presented to the convention if there was any chance of his causing discord in the party.

Wash Fruit Before Eating It.

The following curious instance is reported by M. Schnirer of the ease with which consumption germs may be disseminated. While at work one day in the laboratory of Weichselbaum, he sent for some grapes to eat. The fruit had been kept for some time in a basket outside the lavatory and was covered with dust, so that the water in which it was washed was black. On examining it he reflected that, inasmuch as the neighboring street was traversed by consumptive patients going to the clinic, the dust probably was charged with tubercle bacilli. To settle this, M. Schnirer injected into three guinea pigs ten cubic centimeters of water in which the grapes had been washed. One animal died in two days from peritonitis, the two others died on the forty-eighth and fifty-eighth days, respectively, presenting marked tuberculous lesions, especially at the place of injection.

The water in which the grapes had been washed was taken from the faucet, and the glass containing it had been sterilized; neither the boy who had bought the grapes, nor the merchant who had sold them, was consumptive. The cause of the infection was, beyond doubt, the dust on the grapes. This experiment illustrates the danger arising from the dissemination of desiccated tuberculous sputa in the air.—Hall's Journal of Health.

ASSESSMENTS.

Mason Ranks Sixth in the State in the Total Valuation of Property.

Some Interesting Figures Gleaned From a Statement of Auditor of Public Accounts.

The Auditor of Public Accounts has completed the work of tabulating the county assessments and calculating and extending the result of the proceedings of the State Board of Equalization for this year. As the rate of State taxation has not been passed upon by the Legislature, the certificates will not be sent out to the Sheriffs throughout the Commonwealth until the rate is settled.

This tabulated statement of the Auditor shows that the total assessed valuations of the various counties amounted to $544,708,996, as returned by the Assessors. But the Board of Equalization made some change in this. From an assessed valuation of $326,154,446 on land, and personalty subject to equalization, the Board fixed an equalized valuation of $335,342,930, or an increase of $9,188,484, while the assessed valuation of town lots of $162,659,958 was reduced to $161,814,025, or a reduction of $845,933. The net increase in the State on all property of $8,042,551 added to $544,708,996, the assessed valuation, makes $552,751,547, the total equalized valuation upon which the State will collect taxes for 1892. This is an increase of $10,405,615 over the equalized valuation of 1891.

Mason County ranks sixth in the State in total valuation as reported by the Assessors. Jefferson comes first, with $112,831,931; Kenton second, with $29,392,149; Fayette third, with $26,008,160; Campbell fourth, with $14,627,128; Bourbon fifth, with $11,495,605, and Mason sixth, with $9,411,935. Following is the total assessed valuation of the surrounding counties: Bracken, $2,811,735; Robertson, $928,177; Fleming, $5,166,486; Nicholas, $3,534,890, and Lewis, $2,380,920.

No Jurisdiction.

The Superior Court in dismissing the case of Myall versus Jackson, &c., taken up from this county, says: "In this action by a creditor seeking to have a transfer made by an insolvent debtor declared to operate as an assignment for the benefit of all his creditors, the amount of the plaintiff's claim being less than one hundred dollars this court has no jurisdiction of an appeal from a judgment dismissing the petition. And even if the claims of all the creditors could be considered in determining the jurisdiction, still no appeal would lie as the debts mentioned in the petition do not amount in the aggregate to one hundred dollars." WASHINGTON, May 9.—Mr. Frye has given notice that he will occupy an hour of the senate's time this afternoon on an important matter. This notice has reference to the house bill authorizing an American registry to be given to the City of Paris and her sister ocean greyhound of the Inman line, City of New York, conditioned upon the company building two other vessels of equal size and speed in this country. The senate committee on commerce, of which Mr. Frye is chairman, have authorized him to report the house bill favorably to the senate and to urge its immediate passage, and this he will do today. Mr. Frye is understood to entertain some very clear cut opinions in regard to the reported dissatisfaction of the British authorities with this proposed measure, and he is likely to express those opinions in his usual pointed style.

The tedious discussion over the $3,000,000 suspended appropriation for payment to the Chickasaws and Choctaws for their interests in the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservation is still unfinished business in the senate and a vote is to be taken on it at 4 o'clock this afternoon. It is to be followed by the foreign relations committee's bill to give United States courts jurisdiction over offences committed against aliens.

Among other holding over business to come up during the week is Mr. Kyle's resolution for investigating the slums of cities, and Mr. Morgan has given notice of another silver talk in connection with the president's message about the suggested international monetary conference, which is on the vice president's table.

On the senate calendar the fortifications appropriation bill has precedence with the naval appropriation bill next, but it is not probable that both of these measures will be disposed of before the end of the week, inasmuch as each of them will probably give rise to two or three days debate.

It is probable that a test vote on the bill introduced by Representative Hatch, of Missouri, aimed at the suppression of gambling in farm products and known as the anti-options bill, will be had in the house this week, and in anticipation thereof, much earnest work is being done by its supporters to secure its consideration. The test vote will come on a motion to take up the anti-options bill in place of one of the appropriation bills. The members of the appropriation committee will antagonize the other proposition, and an interesting parliamentary battle is in prospect.

But all this depends on the sundry civil appropriation bill, one of the most cumbersome and diversified measures of its kind. It applies in its items to almost every part of the country, and a very large number of members desire to speak during its consideration. Today is set apart for business connected with the District of Columbia, and the sundry civil bill will follow immediately after that business is disposed of. The general debate on the sundry civil bill will take up the greater part, if not all, of the week and on its conclusion depend the chances for taking up the anti-option measure or another appropriation bill. If the sundry civil bill is finished by Saturday, Mr. Hatch will make the attempt to secure consideration of his measure.

IMPORTED LABORERS.

Foreigners Brought Over Under Contract Detained in New York.

NEW YORK, May 9.—Nine men who arrived on the steamer Westerland, under contract to work on the farm of John Conchi, San Benito, Cal., were detained at Ellis island. Two Italians who were hired to work on a Boston railroad were also held.

Her Apron Caught Fire.

CINCINNATI, May 9.—Alvina Hennekes, aged fifteen, daughter of Patrolman Hennekes, of the Bremen Street station, this city, was fatally burned about noon Saturday. The young girl was aiding her mother in preparing the midday meal, and in some way her apron was blown against the hot stove. In a moment it was all ablaze, and the flames spread all over her clothing. Her mother came to her aid and tried to extinguish the fire, but in vain.

Still Expoding Bombs.

BUDA PESTH, May 9.—Two dynamite bombs were exploded in Veresviz yesterday evening. The second totally destroyed the house of Notary Papp. He and his family were absent. The motive was revenge for a supposed injury done by Papp in business to a poor Roumanian family. The head of the family has been arrested. Nobody was killed in either explosion.

IN THE DARK LAND.

Arabs Arriving at Zanzibar Report That Dr. Emin is Dead.

BERLIN, May 9.—Eugene Wolff, special correspondent of The Berliner Tageblatt for the German colonies in Africa, telegraphs that Arabs arriving at Zanzibar, say that Dr. Emin is dead. The report, Wolff says, lacks confirmation, although it was undoubtedly true, as Wolff telegraphed on May 3, that Dr. Emin was stricken with smallpox while following his advance force from Wadai to Bukoba.

This force was under Dr. Stuhlmann and reached Bukoba on Feb. 15. The latter reports from Stuhlmann have been received. Whether Dr. Emin is supposed to have died of the smallpox or violent causes the dispatch fails to state.

Guests Driven Out.

NEW YORK, May 9.—A fire in the building adjoining Earle's hotel, this city, drove out the guests at 2:15 Sunday morning. At that hour flames were discovered in the building, 247 Canal street, a five-story brick structure, occupied by Jenkins & Company, manufacturers of sashes and blinds. The gong at the hotel was immediately sounded and in a few minutes the guests were ready to leave if necessary. The fire, however, was confined to the building in which it originated, which was entirely consumed. The loss to the building and contents is $34,000. Earle's hotel was damaged by smoke to the extent of $300. Loss to adjoining property will be about $3,000.

Louisiana Legislature.

NEW ORLEANS, May 9.—The legislature convenes at Baton Rouge today noon. The greatest interest now centers in the election of a United States senator to succeed R. L. Gibson. Among the prominent candidates are Senator Gibson, State Senator Don Caffery, Congressman Blanchard and Secretary of State-elect Adams, all of the Foster faction, and ex-Senator Jones, one the part of the late McEneryites.

Fight in a Tenement House.

ALTOONA, Pa., May 9.—Yesterday afternoon Pinky Marks, a tough, went into an Italian tenement house on Ninth avenue and raised a fight. He defended himself with an ax and the Italians used bricks. Joe Paile, one of the Italians, was trying to effect a settlement, when his neck was broken by a flying brick, death ensuing in a few minutes. No one can be found who saw the missile thrown.

Famous Restaurant Burned.

LONDON, May 9.—Scott's famous Haymarket restaurant was burned to the ground last night. The fire started in the kitchen, and spread with such rapidity that the persons in the building had to run for their lives. Three men jumped from the second story windows and were seriously injured. Four waiters were burned to death.

A Negro Kills His Child.

ERLANGER, Ky., May 9.—At this place Saturday Major Hendrix, a Tennessee negro, killed his own child, aged four months, and severely wounded Mrs. Gilmore, a colored woman, who interfered in behalf of the child. Officers are scouring the country for the culprit, who has taken to the woods.

Notorious Burglar Escapes from Jail.

MONTICELLO, Ind., May 9.—William Douglas, a noted New York burglar, made his escape from the Piatt county jail here. The sheriff had entered the jail to take in supplies. Douglas secreted himself behind a large stove and made his escape through a window to the ground. He is wanted at several places for burglary. He was arrested at Lafayette, Ind., and claims New York as his home. A reward is offered for his arrest.

Child Dies on a Train.

NEWARK, O., May 9.—Otto Wolter, an infant child belonging to emigrant parents, died Saturday night just east of this place on a train, while en route to Chicago. The remains were embalmed here and forwarded to Des Plaines, Ill., the future home of its parents.

Thackeray's Realism.

Thackeray is verily as great a realist as a great artist can be. He prides himself on presenting life as it is, unseasoned by the hot spices of artificial romance. Nay, he employs devices to entrap the credulity of the reader—the device, for example, of making Arthur Pendennis, whom we know independently, tell the story of his young friend Clive Newcome, and the noble, meek hearted gentleman with whom he had seen the boy at the Cave of Harmony.

Yes, Thackeray is a great realist, if ever there was one. His characters are no decorative figments to amuse our fancy. They have become some of the men and women we know best—personal friends or foes of our own. It consoles us for living in these late days of a reformed parliament that we have lived late enough to have known Colonel Newcome. They were no tears of unreal sentiment that we wept over his martyrdom; it was a very genuine itch we felt to kick Barnes.—Blackwood's Magazine.

The Necessity of the Times.

Inventive faculty will not have reached high tide until some one perfects an envelope flap warranted to stick. One of the considerable discomforts of life takes the form of a non-adhesive mucilage that allows the envelope upon which it is placed to peel open again and again as it is pressed down, until in a fine frenzy the letter writer is driven hither and yon for real mucilage. And the finer the quality of the stationery the more trials lie in the wake of the envelope.

If they are trusted to the mails without an extra dab of mucilage, they may be depended upon to arrive at their destination invitingly open—or accessible to the sneakish individual, who in spite of our civilization does exist, who is capable of going against all written and unwritten laws and tampering with a seal. A padlocked envelope is one of the necessities of the times.
